1. According to production plans for 1954, the Gheorghiu-Dej Shipyards in Budapest will continue to devote its complete capacity to the building of Soviet river craft. The Hungarians hope to have some river craft built for themselves in 1955.
2. The shipyard in Balatonfired employed approximately 2,000 workers in April 1954. The production consisted of motor assault boats (Schnellboote) for the USSR, Rumania, and Bulgaria.
